Ownership and Financing

HenryMakow.com is owned by Henry Makow, a former English literature professor who has written a series of three books titled “Illuminati,” a reference to a conspiracy theory about a purported secret society that seeks global control. The description for his most recent book, a 2014 release titled “Illuminati3: Satanic Possession: There is only one Conspiracy,” states, “What passes as spontaneous ‘social change’ is in fact an organized process of satanic possession. ... Satanist (Cabalist) Jews and Freemasons are waging a covert war against God and man and are close to achieving victory.”

Makow is also the inventor of Scruples, a card game that according, to its website, “makes players sweat as they ask each other what they would do in a moral predicament.” The website displays banner advertisements for readers to purchase Scruples through a website called TheGameCrafter.com, or download their own Scruples cards or the Scruples app for free.

The website also generates revenue through sales of Makow’s books, which are advertised on the site. HenryMakow.com does not run other advertisements.

Content

HenryMakow.com covers national and international news, culture, and health, in stories that frequently promote the conspiracy theory that a secret society run by Jewish and global elites is plotting to establish a singular global government. A tagline at the top of every page describes the site as “An Oasis for the Awake.”

The site has covered the Israel-Hamas war, the Russia-Ukraine war, the COVID-19 pandemic and COVID-19 vaccines. Articles are sorted into sections including Coronavirus, Feminism & Heterosexuality, and New World Order.

A UW (University of Winnipeg) section is dedicated to articles that Makow wrote in the early 2000s that criticized the Women's Studies program at the University of Winnipeg (UW) in Manitoba, Canada. According to a May 2000 article from the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Makow was formerly an English professor at UW.

The site's content regularly denigrates Jews: Makow has referred to Judaism as a "satanic cult" and to Zionists as "Jewish Nazis" in articles. HenryMakow.com also routinely criticizes LGBTQ community leaders, feminism, liberal politicians such as U.S. President Joe Biden and Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, and Republicans described by Makow as "elites" and "traitors," including former U.S. President Donald Trump.

HenryMakow.com also publishes its content in separate French, Polish, Spanish, and German-language editions.

Credibility

Articles on HenryMakow.com routinely advance false, egregiously misleading, or unsubstantiated claims, including about vaccines.

For example, a March 2024 article titled "Vaccinated Will All Die of Turbo Cancer Soon" quoted U.K. Member of Parliament Andrew Bridgen as saying he was told by an unnamed senior cabinet minister in February 2024, "You are vaccinated. You will be dead of cancer soon." The article that quoted Bridgen was republished from ThePeoplesVoice.tv, which NewsGuard has found to repeatedly publish false or egregiously misleading claims. "The vaccinated will soon begin dying in their hundreds of millions according to British Member of Parliament Andrew Bridgen who revealed a Senior Cabinet Minister told him details of the plan to use turbo cancer to depopulation (sic)," the article began.

The article continued, "According to Bridgen, the incident took place in the tea room at Westminster Houses of Parliament, where the unnamed senior Minister told him that he would be 'dead of cancer soon' because he was misled into taking the vaccine during the lockdown.

'You can speak out all you want, the Minister told Bridgen. 'It doesn't matter. You are vaccinated. You will be dead of cancer soon.'"

In fact, health experts have repeatedly stated that there is no evidence that COVID-19 vaccines cause or worsen cancers in people who have been immunized. According to the website of Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, "none of the [COVID] vaccines interact with or alter your DNA in any way, and therefore cannot cause cancer."

Dr. Steven Pergam, a professor at the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Center in Seattle, said in an undated article on the National Cancer Institute's website that "there are no data that suggest that COVID-19 vaccines cause cancer, lead to recurrence or to disease progression." According to the website of the American Cancer Society, "There is no information that suggests that COVID-19 vaccines cause cancer. There is also no information that suggests these vaccines can make cancer grow or recur (come back)."

An October 2023 article titled "PHARMAGEDDON - How the COVID 'Vaccine' Bioweapon Kills," stated: "There is no good intention. Instead, we have seen relentless coercion, relentless censorship, and relentless lying by officials regarding the 'safety', 'effectiveness', and even the 'necessity' of, the COVID-BIOWEAPON-JAB."

Contrary to the article's statements, multiple peer-reviewed clinical trials and real-world studies have shown that COVID-19 vaccines are effective in reducing the risk of severe disease, hospitalization, and death from COVID-19. For example, a May 2022 study published in the New England Journal of Medicine, which involved 2.2 million people in Qatar, found that a booster dose of the Pfizer and Moderna COVID-19 vaccines "led to strong protection against Covid-19-related hospitalization and death” from the omicron variant of COVID-19. A June 2022 study published in the journal The Lancet Infectious Diseases estimated that the first year of COVID-19 vaccinations averted at least 14.4 million COVID-19 deaths worldwide.

Additionally, there is no evidence to suggest that COVID-19 vaccines are bioweapons. In August 2021, the U.S. National Intelligence Council released a report which stated that, based on existing knowledge, “We judge the virus was not developed as a biological weapon.”

An October 2023 story titled “We are Gadarene Swine” said of COVID-19 vaccinations in New Zealand: “On one day, 30 people were jabbed on the same day at the same location. All are now deceased, and their deaths are in close temporal time proximity to each other. New Zealand is a crime scene.”

There is no evidence that 30 people died in New Zealand shortly after they all received a COVID-19 vaccine, according to New Zealand authorities and health experts. Chris James, the group manager of New Zealand’s medicines and vaccines regulator Medsafe, told NewsGuard in an October 2023 email: “No reported deaths to Medsafe match the claim as reported.”

Dr. Michael Baker, an epidemiologist at the University of Otago in Wellington, New Zealand, told NewsGuard in an October 2023 email that the claim “is obviously absurd. Even one unexplained death immediately following vaccination would result in a major investigation. Multiple such deaths occurring on the same day and at the same vaccination site ... would be a health emergency triggering a vigorous response to identify and control the cause.”

Christian Marchello, a vaccine safety surveillance and research manager at the Te Whatu Ora public health agency, told NewsGuard in October 2023 that public data shows that four deaths _ not 30 _ “are possibly linked to adverse reactions following COVID-19 vaccination.”

In a November 2023 article titled “ Hamas Attack Was Staged by Israel,” HenryMakow.com stated that the Oct. 7, 2023, attack on Israel by Palestinian militant group Hamas was orchestrated by Israel. The article said, “ Hamas Attack Was Staged to Justify Palestinian genocide and world war. Israeli soldiers killed most of the Jewish settlers.”

In fact, there is no evidence that the Oct. 7, 2023, attack carried out by Hamas was “staged by Israel,” as the article’s headline stated. The attack, which Hamas carried out by launching rockets into Israel, deploying armed paragliders, and mounting a ground invasion on trucks and motorbikes, was documented by security camera and drone footage as well as by Hamas militants, victims, and witnesses on the scene.

Since the Oct. 7, 2023, beginning of the conflict, multiple news organizations, including The New York Times and The Associated Press, have documented evidence of the Hamas attack from the scene. For example, in Kfar Azza, one of the villages attacked, The Associated Press reported seeing the bodies of Hamas militants, a Hamas flag, and a paraglider used by Hamas to stage the attack. In the same village, The New York Times reported seeing a vest with a Hamas insignia lying next to a paraglider used by militants.

In an October 2023 article titled “ Jews and Muslims in Genocidal Death Duel,” the site compared the Hamas attack to the Sept. 11, 2001, terror attacks, stating, “[Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin] Netanyahu calls the [Oct. 7, 2023] Gaza attack, ‘our 9-11 moment.’ Like 9-11, Gaza was perpetrated by the zionists.”

The Sept. 11, 2001, attacks were planned by members of al-Qaeda — an Islamist militant group that has been hostile to Jews, and Zionism, a movement that has advocated for the creation of and maintenance of a Jewish state. The 9/11 Commission confirmed in its 2004 report on the attacks that the terrorists who hijacked four U.S. jetliners on Sept. 11, 2001, and flew them into the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and a Pennsylvania field, were members of the al-Qaeda network. “We know now that these attacks were carried out by various groups of Islamist extremists,” the commission said in an executive summary of its report. “The 9/11 attack was driven by Usama Bin Laden [the founder of al-Qaeda].”

Because HenryMakow.com routinely publishes misinformation, including about the Israel-Hamas war and the COVID-19 pandemic, NewsGuard has determined that the site repeatedly publishes false or egregiously misleading content, does not gather and present information responsibly, and does not avoid deceptive headlines.

The website does not articulate a corrections policy, and NewsGuard did not find any corrections, including to the multiple false claims cited above.

HenryMakow.com does not identify itself as an opinion site or articulate a specific perspective. However, NewsGuard found that articles and headlines on the site, including those appearing in sections such as “Coronavirus,” and “More Recent and Notable,” contain unlabeled opinion.

For example, a January 2024 article titled “Civil War Erupts Over Biden's Treasonous Migrant Policy” stated: “Texas is not backing down! Governor Abbot just released a letter explaining why Biden is violating the constitution. Texas is officially challenging the United States governments unconstitutional actions (sic).”

A November 2023 article titled “Anti-Semite Elon Musk Has God on His Side” stated: “The Nazis gave anti-Semitism a bad name. Perhaps that was deliberate. Their crude propaganda, racism, and genocide made it despicable. But, anti-Semitism had a long and noble tradition before the Nazis.”

A November 2023 article titled “Feminism Destroyed Woman's Power” stated: “By teaching women to be self-seeking instead of self-sacrificing, Feminism has deprived them of their stock-in-trade, love. All they have left to give is sex.

Because they won't surrender to a loving husband, they're reduced to giving themselves to strangers.”

Because HenryMakow.com does not identify itself as an opinion site, and regularly publishes unlabeled opinion, NewsGuard has determined that the site does not handle the difference between news and opinion responsibly.

Asked in a November 2023 NewsGuard email about the above-mentioned articles that advance false claims, the site's corrections practices, and its approach to differentiating between news and opinion content, Makow responded: “Thanks ... but I do not wish to participate in your service.” Makow did not respond to two follow-up emails seeking comment in March 2024.

Transparency

HenryMakow.com only discloses its ownership in small copyright language at the bottom of the site, which does not meet NewsGuard's standard for disclosing ownership in a transparent manner.

Although the site provides an email for Makow, it does not identify him as the editor in charge of its content, which includes several articles by contributing authors.

Articles that are credited to Makow list his email address. However, the majority of articles are produced by contributing authors, who do not include their biographical or contact information. This does not meet NewsGuard's standard for providing information about content creators.

Makow declined to comment when asked in a November 2023 NewsGuard email about the site's lack of an ownership disclosure and lack of information about its editorial leadership and content creators. Makow did not respond to two emails sent by NewsGuard in March 2024.

Advertisements for Makow's books and his Scruples card game are distinguished from editorial content.

History

HenryMakow.com was registered in August 2004. The site was previously called SaveTheMales.ca, a domain that was registered in January 2001 and now redirects to HenryMakow.com.

Makow first gained prominence for a syndicated column he wrote at age 11, called "Ask Henry." The column, which appeared in approximately 40 Canadian and U.S. newspapers between 1961 and 1964, provided a child's perspective on parenting, according to an undated Encyclopedia Britannica article.

Makow received a doctoral degree from the University of Toronto in 1982 and was a part-time lecturer at the University of Manitoba, according to the University of Manitoba's website. He published his first book, a nonfiction book about meeting his wife, called "A Long Way to go for a Date," in 2000.

Makow invented his card game, Scruples, in 1984, according to ScruplesGame.com.
